Just as we do. Because when customers need electric service, we are obligated to provide it.

And we always knew that you and your classmates might one day be our customers. That's why we started planning for today ten years ago, so that we could provide electricity for the lifestyle you choose.

We hope we can supply electricity for all your tomorrows, too.

'84 COLOPHON

The 1984 Graham, volume 38, was published by the yearbook staff of Graham High School, Bluefield, Virginia 24605. The book was printed by Taylor Publishing Company, Dallas, Texas. Richard Elliott was the company representative.

The 480 copies of the 8½ x 11, 216 page book were printed on 80 pound gloss enamel paper with a base ink of black and some reverse print. No color was used, and graphics were 100% black. The book was Smyth sewn and the type was #48 Times Roman, with 10 point used for both captions and body copy. Times Roman was also used for all advertisements and headlines. An 8 page standard autograph section with senior and yearbook staff members' names printed in gold foil completed the specifications. The endsheets were screened in 70% maroon (034). The cover was custom designed and had base color maroon (360) with hot gold foil applied.

All portraits and club pictures were taken by Coleman's Studio, Elizabethton, Tennessee, and football pictures were taken by Tyler Easley, local photographer. All other photographs were taken by Mrs. Deborah Hart and Mr. Tom Helton, advisors, and Laura Malone, editor.

The total cost of producing the 1984 Graham was in excess of $14,000. Individual copies cost $30.63 to produce, but were sold for $18.00 due to local advertising.

Well, at least some of us enjoy ourselves at school. Here, Terry Smith seems to be hysterical!

Marty Howard, Mike Fender, Lisa Cooley, and Gordon Clay enjoy their favorite time of day.

The members of the Girls' Softball Team are: Diann Pennington, Terri Danley, Tracy Estep, Lisa Davidson, Becky Tabor, Karen Ellsworth, Rachel Westfall, Tina Webb, Susan Mikovch, and Amy Baker.

Top magazine salespeople, Wanda Simons and Tonya Fogg, show us their pride.

Much work is put into the Junior Class Play. Marvin Howery, Rhonda McCurry, Doug Cook, Gordon Clay, James Hampton, and Sharlene McCoy can vouch for that.

During football games, Band members are always there to greet our G-Men.

Junior Henry Fortune attempts another basket. Scott Ray and Robert Phillips are there in case there is a rebound.

David French shows us some of his beautiful artwork.
